

The Town of Brookline will be transitioning all health insurance coverage to the Group Insurance Commission effective July 1, 2010. In advance of this transition, please be aware of the following important information:

Recent Communications

The following memos were recently mailed to everyone's home address regarding the transition of health insurance plans:

NEW - Please see the attached announcement. More detail information will follow. Briefly, the Town has agreed with the PEC to reimburse GIC subscribers for the outpatient surgery co-pay (up to $150) and the co-pay for inpatient hospital care (up to $500). This is an extension of our current reimbursement process and will be effective for FY11, July 1, 2010 to June 30, 2011.
